VOLUME XII NUMBER 12

THE NEWSLETTER OF ALL SAINTS EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Monthly Taize Service Today

Join us at 5 p.m. on Sunday, March 21, in the Chapel for this wonderful candlelight service of prayers, readings, silence, meditative songs in English, Latin and Spanish. It is a wonderful space for nurturing one's soul for gathering strength to continue the struggles and joys we face in our lives and our world. The readings and prayers will have a Lenten theme as we focus on prayers around the cross. Weekly Taize prayer services are still offered Thursdays from 6 to 7 p.m. in the Chapel. For more information, contact Wilma Jakobsen at 626.583-2762 or wjakobsen@allsaints-pas.org.

Lenten Evensong

On Sunday, March 28, at 5 p.m. in the warm ambience of the candlelit church, Coventry Choir and chamber orchestra will offer Dona Nobis Pacem by Ralph Vaughan Williams. Combining texts from the Bible and poems by Walt Whitman, Vaughan Williams pleads for peace and humanity in this poignant cantata. Christina Honchell offers a meditation. This special Lenten Evensong of prayer, meditation and song will provide a wonderful moment of reflection and beauty this holy season. Child care will be available. For more information, call 626.583.2725.

Our Legacy, Our Future

FROM ILEAN ROGERS, DIRECTOR OF STEWARDSHIP

In mid-January of this year, a memorial service took place at All Saints Church for a young man by the name of Howard Joseph Gilby. Howard, a firefighter for the U. S. Forest Service, died at the age of 40 from complications during an illness. Because he was stationed and lived at the Green Valley Ranger Station in Saugus, Howard was able to attend services here only rarely. Nevertheless, he was a "champion of the underdog" said his mother Barbara, and he felt aligned with this church on peace and justice issues.

All Saints Church recently received a bequest from the estate of Howard Gilby. Although he is survived by his parents and his two sisters, he left a gift to support the work of this parish. Because of his bequest to All Saints Church, Howard's name will be included in the Heritage Society. In 1983, the Heritage Society was created to honor those who, during their lives, made a provision in their estate plans for All Saints Church. All these people have something in common: a love for this church and a willingness to express that love in a tangible way that will benefit the church for years to come.

The names of the members of the Heritage Society are listed on a plaque in Regas House. Later this year, we will revise the plaque on the Heritage Wall to include the names of those like Howard Gilby who have made or informed the church of a planned gift. Every individual or family is welcome to have their name added to the wall—all it takes is some simple estate planning that includes All Saints Church. In addition to providing for the needs of our own families, each of us can make a plan to share a portion of our resources to help sustain our church.

This Sunday, we will focus on the Heritage Ministry as the featured ministry. Heritage Committee volunteers will be available to answer your questions about how to remember the church in your plans. There are multiple ways to make a planned gift. This can be done, for instance, through a will, a new or existing life insurance policy or the purchase of a charitable gift annuity. Your participation as a member of the Heritage Society will give you the satisfaction of knowing you are a part of the legacy of this church. Together, we can ensure that All Saints Church will thrive and grow for generations to come.

Most importantly, the Heritage Society represents a means to express our gratitude to God for the blessings of this life and respond to our call to care for all creation. We can become connected, through our estate plans, to the future of this church and the continuation of its work in the world.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT

ADULTS AT 10:15

RECTOR'S FORUM

Lessons from the Supermarket Strike
with Peter Dreier

As of this print deadline, a settlement in the dispute affecting area supermarkets is imminent. A conclusion to this seemingly endless and bitter fight will be a relief to all parties—the workers who have postponed medical care and who have not been able to pay their bills in the last few weeks, as well as the shoppers who have observed the picket lines. But the implications from the issues at the heart of the dispute will play out for the foreseeable future. Looming large over specific issues of health care and salary structures is the Wal-Martization of the world. Peter Dreier, distinguished professor of politics and public policy at Occidental College, and All Saints' partner in issues of peace and justice, takes us through the issues. He observes that although Henry Ford was no friend of unions, he knew his workers needed to make enough money to buy the cars he was producing. There is some fear that the success of companies like Wal-Mart will eventually pull down America's middle-class standard of living. There are many sides to the issues of labor and management. Bring your questions and comments to a stimulating conversation on economic justice at the Rector's Forum this Sunday.

Death and Dying: Wills, Advance Directives, Stewardship and Heritage with Zelda Kennedy, Facilitator

We cannot be reminded too many times that grief, which may be expressed as anger, guilt and sorrow, is unpredictable and does not occur in an orderly sequence. They find ways of assaulting our hearts powerfully and unexpectedly. We need to be reminded continually that grief hits the very source of life. This four-week series explore the stages and types of grief including suicide, loss, long-term illness, divorce, separation and death. We will discuss preparation through planning wills, writing advanced directives and writing our own liturgies for burial, which can be kept on file at All Saints Church.

Working Parents Group

The first gathering of the Working Parents Group will be held Sunday, April 4, from 12:30 to 2 p.m. in the Senior High Room. Participants will support each other, pray for and with each other, discuss issues that come up as working parents, and talk about ways to bring faith into their homes with their children.

Meetings will be held the first Sunday of each month. For more information, contact Shannon Ferguson Kelly at 626.583.2744 or sfkelly@allsaints-pas.org.

New Book Group for Parents

God, Mommy & Me has started a book group. The Really Laid-Back Book Group for Parents will meet the first Monday of each month in the Guild Room with social time at 7 p.m. and discussion starting at 7:30 p.m. The book Seabiscuit will be discussed at the April 5th meeting.

Be aware that if you haven't finished the book, you may well find out the ending at the meeting. But you also won't be berated for not finishing!

It takes place on the second Thursday of each month through December (the only exception is April 15 substituting for April 8) at Metro Gallery in Old Town (64 N. Raymond) at 7 p.m. There is no cost to attend.
