

Guest Book for

Randolph C. Blymire

March 31, 2005

- ☒ Today is the last day for this guest book to appear on line.

For those friends/acquaintances who were unable to attend Randy's viewing/services I wish to share the following poem that was printed in Randy's Memorial card. I think it speaks highly of Randy and is so very "Randy." Whoever selected it deserves credit.

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an after glow
of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who
grieve, to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
When life is done.

- ☒ I am saddened to hear of Randy's passing. He was a good friend and gave true meaning to the word Humanity. I know he is doing what he did best, but now in a better place...helping others. Rest in Peace my Friend.

- ☒ We met Randy through York Community Access Television. He was one of the kindest and most helpful human beings we have had the pleasure of knowing and working with. His passing will be a great loss to us and to the community.

- ☒ I have known Randy for many years and was shocked when I was sent his obit. We had not spoke for sometime and I really regret that we had not, life gets so busy and in the bustle we forget our friendships until it becomes to late to rekindle them. I had a friend in Randy, when I first arrived in York 20 years ago he would visit me and give me recorder lessons and just sit and talk. He was a friend of our family for a very long time and will be greatly missed. I envy you Randy, You have gone to a better place than this world. Some day I will be able to see you again, give you a big hug and let you know how much you really ment to me. Rest in peace dear friend.

- ☒ I knew and respected Randy a lot. He had a quiet manner that included lots of humor. I felt he did a great job on educating folks about gay issues and he was always ready to lend a hand. The YCHRC Commission has lost a true friend.

- I only new Randy enough to say hello. But I oftened wished that I had gotten to know him better.

I also respected his dedication to social activism.

He will be missed.

- My thoughts & prayers are with you, Sandy, even though we haven't seen eye to eye. I didn't know Randy very well, but I knew that I liked him. I always used to refer to him as "Bob", and he didn't mind a bit! Your family has been through lot. And I only hope you & yours become stronger from all of the trials & tribulations you've had to endure. Take Care, and know that Randy is definitely in a Much better Place now. Chrissy

- We wish to extend our most deepest sympathy to Randy's family and friends.

Randy was a very kind, considerate, caring and helpful person.

In my opinion, Randy was public access not just in television but he made himself accessible to the public. If anyone ever needed help with anything Randy was always there.

Randy gave me one of the most priceless gifts anyone could ask for-- his friendship.
